COLLYER, June 8, 1887.

Miss C. Finley is again able to be about.

If rumor be true, there is an unusual activity in the matrimonial market.

Miss V. Welch's maiden lecture Sunday evening was highly complimented.

Pension day and a meeting of the G. A. R. brought the soldiers to town last Saturday.

L. A. Fisher came down from Oakley Thursday noon to look after his business interests here.

Hard rains visited us Thursday and Saturday nights, and the growth in the crops is very marked.

Many persons, with "their sisters, their cousins and their aunts," attended the W. C. T. U. entertainment.

The Misses York and Mrs. G. W. Kessler kindly furnished beautiful bouquets for the W. C. T. U. entertainment.

Miss Brooks, of Wa-Keeney, was in town this week, delivering the books for which she had taken subscriptions.

Mr. Hanson, Sunday school missionary, of Norton county, was present at the temperance meeting and kindly assisted in the services.

Miss Lida Norton paid a pleasant visit to her parents, near Hackberry creek, and returned to her sister's, Mrs. Phillips, on Sunday.

Mr. John Burns is seriously ill, and under a physician's care. His old lung trouble seems to have returned, probably from overwork this spring.

Mr. Burr and family pitched their tent with us Saturday evening and joined in the religious services next day. They were emigrating to Wallace county.

The old settlers don't seem to be able to get used to warm, rainy weather, and instead of growing strong like the crops, are complaining of enervation and loss of ambition.

W. C. was informed recently that the citizens and societies of Collyer would soon receive an invitation to visit Buffalo Park July 4th, and celebrate the laying of a church corner stone there.

The W. C. T. U. is greatly indebted to Miss V. Welch for her timely assistance Tuesday evening in supplying the places on the program made vacant by Miss McDonald's unavoidable absence.

Your correspondent's home has been beautified many times during the past week by floral contributions from friends, and though the flowers faded, the grateful thoughts they inspired will not.

Rev. J. C. Elliott extended an invitation to Collyer Sunday school to unite with other schools in holding a picnic at Brown's grove on July 4th. The invitation was received, but action deferred for a week.

A young lady arrived at the hotel a few days ago for the purpose of securing in town pupils in wax-flower work. She was soon taken ill, and a case of measles was developed, which has confined her to her room ever since.

A metal plaque picture of Gen. Grant was last Saturday received by the Collyer Post, as a present from their comrade and former surgeon, Dr. George F. Nealey, now Surgeon of the Kansas State Penitentiary, at Lansing, Kans.

The condition of our soldier citizen, D. G. Carleton, continually grows worse. His eyesight has about departed, and insane fancies frequently control his brain. The members of Collyer Post are lending assistance as watchers at his bedside.

Miss K. McDonald was prostrated with sickness on Tuesday evening, much to the regret of her many friends, who knew it was partially due to her exertions to assist them in perfecting the entertainment, and they wish her a speedy recovery.

Go to G. W. Blackwell's, Collyer, Kan., for your Acme Pulverizer and Harrow, the greatest harrow for listed corn on the market. Also see the patent-tooth Ellinwood Harrow and Adams Cultivator, and do not fail to examine the new Deering Mower. Prices way down. 490-4t

About fifty persons were present Sunday evening to listen to Miss Welch on "The Effects of Alcohol Upon the Human System," and were much interested in her instructive lecture. The exercises were under the auspices of Collyer W. C. T. U., and after singing, led by Miss Teague at the organ, the president read Luke 5: 12-13, and made a few explanatory remarks thereupon. Mr. Hanson was then introduced, and led in prayer, after which Miss Welch entertained the audience with scientific experiments and explanations of Yaggy's physiological chart. A reading on "Beer—What it is and what it does," followed by an invitation to sign the pledge, closed the services. Congregational singing frequently enlivened the program.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

We clip from the last number of the Buffalo Park Pioneer, the receipt of which is hereby gratefully acknowledged, the following item, which is but a small portion of the good words the editors said of the Memorial Day services at Collyer:

The following was adopted at the regular meeting of Buffalo Park Post yesterday:

Resolved, That Buffalo Park Post tender their thanks and good wishes to Collyer Post for the kind and considerate treatment accorded the Post on Memorial Day. And especially would we express our obligations to the Ladies' Relief Corps of Collyer for the bountiful dinner provided. By order of S. O. WATNER, P. C. J. B. McCLANAHAN, Adjutant.

CORNER STONE.

As noticed last week, the laying of the corner stone of the Congregational church occurred on May 30, about 5 P. M., in the presence of an audience whose numbers would have been greater had not wind and weariness of body prevented attendance. The exercises consisted of hymn, by the choir; prayer, by Rev. J. C. Elliott; Scripture reading, Rev. J. Q. A. Weller; instruction by trustees and building committee to Rev. J. Q. A. Weller to lay the corner stone; the depositing of these instructions in the stone, together with a list of contributors to the church building, names of trustees and building committee, copies of the World and Buffalo Park Pioneer, and the Holy Scriptures; sealing of stone by Rev. Weller, assisted by Mr. Hawkins, of Gove county—a member of Buffalo Park Grand Army Post; Scripture reading, hymn and benediction. Miss Teague presided at the organ, which had been previously carried to the grounds, and the choir was kindly assisted by Mr. Potter and ladies, of Buffalo Park.

Work has been continued on the stone foundation, and will be completed this week. The building will be of frame, 24x38 feet, 12 feet to the eaves, with an arched ceiling two feet higher, and a tower for a bell.

W. C. T. U.

To the discouragements of storms and many duties, was added, at the last hours, the sickness of one of the workers, and for a few moments a postponement of the first W. C. T. U. entertainment was considered, but only for a few moments. Then, by the kindness mentioned elsewhere, the usual western determination, so truly expressed in our Kansas motto, prevailed, and the following program was given:

Music.....Cornet and Organ,
Mr. Bruner and Miss Teague.
Address of welcome.....Nellie Teague,
Recitation.....My First Cigar,
Glendale Morgan.
Song.....Put me in My Little Bed,
Nellie Teague.
Tableau.....Taking the Veil,
Mrs. Gubbins, Mrs. Martin, Misses
Welch and Bartlett.
Solo.....John Anderson, My Jo, (in costume)
Miss Teague and Mr. Bruner.
Recitation.....Der Oak and der Vine,
Charles Bamber.
Solo.....Let's be Friends,
Miss D. Martin.
Dialogue.....Marrying a Poetess,
Otis Kessler, Misses V. and J. Welch,
D. Martin and Jesse Kessler, Glendale
Morgan and Nellie Teague.
Song.....Windmill,
Lony Smith, Fred and Nellie Teague,
Glendale Morgan and Lillie and Vernie Ingram.
Pantomime.....
Scene 1.....Yielding to Temptation,
Scene 2.....The Result,
Misses V. Welch and P. Kessler, T.
Smith and small children.
Solo.....Kerry Dance,
Miss O. Teague.
Dialogue.....Collyer in 1878, '83 and 87,
Miss V. Welch, M. P. Goodwin and Nellie Teague.
Solo and Chorus.....Out West
Misses Martin and Teague, and Messrs
Bruner and Chas. Teague.
Essay.....The Future, or Collyer in 1912,
Miss Stickney.

The exercises were not given as perfectly as the participants would like to have had them, but only residents of this land of "magnificent distances" can realize the difficulties of holding rehearsals when a distance of two to four miles separates willing workers, and by many the sentiment was voiced last night that the evening's success was beyond their expectations. The opening instrumental selection was exceedingly sweet and nicely rendered. All the soloists did credit to themselves, while the characters in the first dialogue and pantomime were well taken and the acting good. The telling hits in the Collyer scenes were proof of a good memory, quick conception and ability of execution, and were thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

The magic letters, W. C. T. U., in white, which so prominently appeared over the stage, were the work of the eldest member of the Union.

OGALLAH, KAN., June 8, 1887.

Cultivating.
Another rain.
Funeral services.
Beautiful evenings.
Preaching last Sunday.
Mr. Olson has pre-empted his tree claim, on Big creek.
A wholesale groceryman was seen on our streets last Monday.
Base ball seems to be the amusement of the evening at Ogallah.
We have noticed in riding around that potatoes are in bloom nicely.
Five carpenters are employed in the erecting of Mrs. Bailey's house.
Commissioner Robb has been spending some time at this station lately.
Last Thursday night another beautiful rain fell, largely to the advantage of spring crops.

Preaching at the Ogallah school house the third Sunday in June. All are cordially invited to attend.

While driving across Big creek bottom last Saturday evening, we beheld Ben. C. Rich looking at his rye crop.

A one-horse cultivator has been placed at the forestry station. This machine is of great advantage to the men who are hoeing.

The receipts at the railroad are not summed up yet, but the agent says they will be as much as any month yet, except the last.

Mrs. Bailey is having a residence erected on her land, just south of W. S. Knapp. The land was formerly owned by William Baldwin.

Mr. Dean closed his school last Friday. He was teaching in the east Glencoe district. The length of his school term was nine months.

Sara Brooks was around this neighborhood in the spring, canvassing for a book. Last week she was here distributing the books she had sold.

Some small bugs have taken charge of the small vines around the truck patches, and have almost destroyed them. Who can give us a remedy?

This evening one of the most beautiful scenes presented itself to our people. It appeared in the shape of a double rainbow, bright as diamonds.

Can we grow peaches in western Kansas? We surely can. We have noticed on several different trees that the peaches are larger than hickory nuts.

Miss Ollie Coffee started for Illinois Tuesday. Miss Coffee has been visiting her brother. Considering her short stay, she leaves many friends behind.

Frank Barber, of Big creek, has built him a frame barn, and has covered it with a shingle roof. Mr. Barber is an old settler, and knows what he is doing.

Mr. Cutler has had his house painted white. Mr. Tawney handled the brush, and from appearances we should judge he understood the business. Mr. Cutler is an old settler, and we are pleased to see him improving his place.

A forestry meeting was called for Wednesday, June 1. On account of the men going by two, the meeting was a grand failure, notwithstanding Chairman Palmer's being so anxious to have a meeting of that kind reported once from Ogallah.

If the Ogallah and Collyer correspondents are trying to boom their towns, all right; but here everybody is too busy to boom. [Willcox Warblings.] Mr. Warbler, do you know being so busy is what starts a boom? So, cheer up; your turn will come bye-and-bye. Why, we are so busy we have to write our items by lamp light, but our town must be represented in the county paper all the same.

DEATH'S DOINGS.—Miss Jennie Kinsey died last Friday, June 3, at the home of Rev. Stocking, at Gove City. Her remains were brought to Ogallah on the 2:30 train last Saturday. A large number of friends and relatives were at the train to meet the remains of the departed. On the next day, Sunday, the funeral services were preached by Rev. Miles Knapp, after which the body was placed at rest in the cemetery, three quarters of a mile north of Ogallah. Miss Kinsey was sixteen years old, and leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

We had the pleasure of going down to Mr. Mapes's last Saturday and spending Sunday with him, and hardly know where to begin to describe his beautiful place. But to say what we think: Mr. Mapes's grove can not be excelled in western Kansas. He has it divided into a cottonwood grove, a boxelder grove, and a grove in both kinds of the above-named trees. He has also fruit trees in abundance, both of apple and peach. Again, we must not fail to speak of his vineyard. The vines are all placed on frames, and hanging full of grapes. His gooseberry and currant bushes are hanging full of fruit. He has three wells on his place, and everything seems to be kept in its place.

Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup Will relieve that cough almost instantly, and make expectoration easy. Acts simultaneously on the bowels, kidneys and liver, thereby relieving the lungs of that soreness and pain, and also stopping that tickling sensation in the throat by removing the cause. One trial of it will convince any one that it has no equal on earth for coughs and colds. A. B. Jones has secured the sale of it and will guarantee every bottle to give satisfaction or money refunded.

—Sheriff Baker went down to St. Marys on Thursday of last week, in response to a telegram from Under Sheriff Escher, who was holding Mandel at that place. On reaching there, he found that Mr. Escher had decided that his prisoner was not too sick to travel, and had come home with him. Mr. Baker came home the next day.

A Gift for All.

In order to give all a chance to test it and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal, but shows unbounded faith in the merits of this great remedy. All who suffer from coughs, colds, consumption, asthma, bronchitis, or any affection of Throat, chest or lungs, are especially requested to call at Dr. Jones' drug store and get a trial bottle Free, large bottles $1.

—Mr. Geo. C. Ward has been having a stable built.

—Will Hamilton, the traveling flyer of C. B. Hamilton & Co., Topeka, was a Wednesday dropper-in.

—Mrs. Scoville has the thanks of our family for the present of a plate full of beautiful Prairie Queen roses.

—Mr. Byron Kelley is having a large addition built to his house, a short distance northwest of the Farmers' Home.

—Sparks, the painter, has returned from his eastern trip, and is ready to wield the brush which carries the paint that protects architectural surfaces.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chelsey, Patterson, Clay county, Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only fifty cents, at Dr. Jones' drug store.
